

MUCH ADO ABOUT

MYSTERIES

Discussing Mysteries for Over a Decade

Meets Quarterly

Thursday Evenings • 7 PM

Community Room East

Registration Appreciated

New Members Always Welcome

Are you mad about mysteries? Do you eagerly await the next book in your favorite series? Do you enjoy exploring new authors, discussing their latest titles, and sharing your favorites with everyone you meet?

If so, now is the time to join Much Ado About Mysteries at the Glenview Public Library. Meeting quarterly, we don't just discuss one book, we discuss hundreds. Through the years, countless titles have been shared and noted authors have become group favorites.

2017 Discussion Topics

SPRING March 9

Around the World in 30 Sleuths

SUMMER June 8

New to You: Favorite New Authors You've Discovered

FALL September 14

The Book Was Better?:
Mysteries Made Into Movies

WINTER December 14

Award Winners: The Anthonys

A themed booklist is provided before each meeting. Read one book, read them all...or none! Just come for the discussion and the camaraderie of fellow mystery fans.

To sign up for the group's email list, receive book lists, meeting reminders, and agendas, contact: mystery@glenviewpl.org or call Reader Services at 847-729-7500 x 7600

The Glenview Public Library's Quarterly Mystery Discussion Group originated in 1999. Led by Reader Services staff, it continues to be an engaging and lively discussion group for those interested in exploring this fascinating genre.