New Members Always Welcome

Indulge your passion for literature with the Monday Afternoon Page Turners led by Glenview Public Library staff.

The group has been avidly turning pages together for over twenty years—always welcoming new participants and fresh ideas.

Selected titles represent a wide range of literary genres.

Monthly selections are available at the Reader Services Desk one month prior to meetings.

SPRING 2017 Discussion Selections

MARCH 6

The Girls of Atomic City
by Denise Kiernan

The true story of the top-secret World War II town of Oak Ridge, Tennessee and the young women who unwittingly played a crucial role in one of the most significant scientific developments in U.S. history. Few of the women could piece together the true nature of their work until the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima in August of 1945.

APRIL 3

A Man Called Ove
by Fredrik Backman

A curmudgeon hides a horrible personal loss beneath a cantankerous and short-tempered exterior while clashing with new neighbors, a boisterous family whose chattiness and habits lead to an unforeseen friendship.

MAY 1

The Sympathizer
by Viet Thanh Nguyen

The story follows a Viet Cong agent as he spies on a South Vietnamese army general and his compatriots as they start a new life in 1975 Los Angeles. It is a blistering exploration of identity and America, a gripping espionage novel, and a powerful story of love and friendship.
