

Book Buzz: Book Talks for Senior Living Communities

Do you have voracious readers at your facility? Are they looking for book recommendations? Do you find it difficult to recommend books to your residents? If so, the Glenview Public Library can help with Book Buzz: Book Talks.

How can Book Buzz benefit your residents?

- Keep readers up to date with titles, authors, and new ideas
- Tantalize and inspire readers to read new and unfamiliar books
- Studies show that reading on a regular basis has a number of benefits such as: mental stimulation, stress reduction, memory improvement, vocabulary improvement, improved creativity, and something to talk about

Additional information about Book Talks:

- Features both fiction and nonfiction titles
- Programs run for approximately 45 minutes
- Available to senior living communities located in the Glenview Public Library service area
- Facilities are limited to two book talks per year

To schedule a book talk at your facility, please contact Janet McIntyre, Outreach Librarian at 847-729-7500 x2612. Please allow 6 weeks advance notice.
